Welcome

Welcome to Tejasv Pvt Ltd. This employee handbook is a fictional document created for internal knowledge retrieval and testing purposes. It outlines sample workplace policies, expectations, and procedures.

Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to maintain professionalism, respect colleagues, avoid harassment, protect confidential information, and comply with ethical business standards.

Working Hours

Standard working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday through Friday, with flexible arrangements subject to manager approval.

Attendance and Leave

Employees may request casual leave, sick leave, earned leave, and unpaid leave through the HR portal. Unplanned absences should be reported promptly.

Remote Work Policy

Hybrid and remote work may be permitted depending on business needs, performance expectations, and manager approval.

Compensation and Benefits

Compensation includes salary, annual review eligibility, performance incentives, health insurance, and optional wellness benefits.

IT Security

Employees must use strong passwords, avoid sharing credentials, secure company devices, and report suspicious activity immediately.

Data Privacy

Customer and internal data must be handled in accordance with privacy requirements and internal access control practices.

Performance Management

Employees participate in periodic performance reviews based on goals, collaboration, quality, and organizational contribution.

Disciplinary Policy

Policy violations may result in coaching, written warnings, suspension, or termination depending on severity.

Grievance Process

Employees may raise workplace concerns through managers, HR representatives, or designated ethics reporting channels.

Travel and Expense

Business travel requires approval. Reimbursable expenses must be documented and submitted within prescribed timelines.

Asset Usage

Company laptops, software licenses, and access credentials are for authorized business use only.
